

Dear FCC,

I have become alarmed at the recent effort of MSNBC and Fox News to create dissension in our country.

April 10 or 11, 2003 the anchors or hosts of both channels launched a personal attack on certain individuals who spoke out against the war in Iraq.

These editorial comments didn't stop at respectful dialogue. These stations continued to promote contempt of these individuals while pictures of them were put on the television screen. There was a call to boycott these people on the screen so they would be hurt financially. It will only be a matter of time when this abuse of power in the media becomes a catalyst for some fanatic to take physical action against these Americans.

These polarizing attacks are similar to the McCarthy efforts of the 50's to create fear and intimidation in our country.

On another segment of a program a Kuwait person didn't quite support the agenda of the host and the Kuwait person was cut off without being able to fully express his feelings.

Americans have lost the right of free speech as the Fox news and MSNBC will make anyone pay for speaking out against the agenda of the powerful media.

The FCC needs to investigate these calls for action against the citizens of this country by the media!

John Erspamer